Nazis Guesseed Place, Strength Of Allied Invasion but Looked For Further Landings as Well

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

PARIS, June 22.—(AP)—

The Germans guessed the place, strength and approximate time of the Allied invasion of Normandy, but were fooled in their expectation that a second, stronger thrust would come farther east, a supreme headquarters intelligence officer disclosed yesterday after questioning Col.-Gen. Gustav Jodl of the Nazi high command.

It also was learned that Hitler alone did not make the decision to invade Russia, but the German high command decided in that decision, and Jodl claimed the Russians had been strengthening their forces facing Germany.

The Allied invasion of North Africa secured a complete surprise and the Germans were amazed by the failure of their attempt to smash the American command at the Normandy at Arnhem last August.

It also was learned that:

Truman Hopes For Free Press In Coming Era

IN Coming Era

NEW YORK, June 22.—(AP)—

President Truman expressed the hope yesterday that "freedom of the press may become a vehicle for more sympathetic understanding and therefore closer friendship among the nations of the world."

In a letter to Wilbur Forest, assistant editor of the New York Herald Tribune and chairman of a committee that recently completed a 40,000-mile tour in the interest of press freedom, the president said also:

"The unhappy conflict of principles and policies which has suffered the world and threatened civilization through six terrible years emphasizes the need of closer co-operation among the governments and peoples of the United Nations. I hope your mission will contribute to that happy consummation."

PUBLISHED BY MAGAZINE The letter, along with the committee's full report to the American Society of Newspaper Editors, was sent to the United States publisher, newspaper trade journal.

This supplement, which Editor and Publisher is sending to newspaper editors and government officials throughout the world, also contained letters from State Secretary, Secretary of War, Secretary of Navy, Secretary of Agriculture and Secretary of Commerce.

Mr. Stettinius said he and other members of the United States delegation to the San Francisco conference regarded freedom of the press as "one of the fundamental freedoms" that the developing United Nations organization is committed by its charter to protect.

American Workers Will Get Medals From Canada Govt.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—(AP)—

The Senate gave its approval yesterday for three employees of the Civil Aeronautics Administration to accept British Empire Medals for their service during a crashed and burning Canadian bomber in 1942. The employees are Charles Merchant, Leona Seaton and Jack Bassett.

The incident for which the Canadian government tendered the medals occurred Sept. 21, 1942, at the time of the crash of a Canadian bomber on the coast of Newfoundland. The pilot, who was killed, was carrying a large amount of supplies for the Canadian military government.

When the bomber crashed, the pilot was killed. The pilot was carrying a large amount of supplies for the Canadian military government. The pilot was killed. The pilot was carrying a large amount of supplies for the Canadian military government.

Labor Organization Favors Peace Link

By JACK WILLIAMS

QUEBEC, June 22.—(AP)—Official representatives of two governments, Canada and the United States, went on record before the governing body of the international labor organization yesterday supporting establishment of a relationship between the ILO and the new world security organization.

Positions of the two governments on the subject, one of the most important of the agenda of the governing body of Quebec meetings, was announced by heads of the government labor departments, Labor Minister Mitchell and Miss Frances Perkins, United States secretary of labor.

The two ministers with Quebec Labor Minister Barre were among the speakers at the opening session of the body in the Quebec Legislative Assembly chamber. Mr. Mitchell also read a formal greeting from Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Mr. King in welcoming the delegates said the ILO faced heavy responsibilities. In the great economic and social effort which will be required for the transition to peace after the war against Japan has been brought to a successful conclusion your activities can be of immeasurable importance in helping to assure the maintenance of beneficial labor conditions and were necessary relations, the prime minister said.

Potsdam to a bombproof spot and in order to get into Hitler's good graces, he decided to have Goethe and Schiller removed. He did not even consult Dr. Wahl, who had the keys of the castle. But, because the manuscript is the property of the descendants of Archduke Charles Augustus, he requested the permission of the present Archdukes.

The castles were removed during the night on an unknown date to an unknown destination. The SS, as a notified Director Wahl by letter that they had been taken to a safe place "in a secret shelter of a nearby town."

SEARCH FOR CASSETS When I asked the director what efforts he had made to locate them during the past three months, he said he would have asked his life if he had attempted to do so. But also, since the arrival of American troops, he had taken no steps to find the castles. I told him I would try to locate them.

As I knew the nearby towns were Erfurt and Jena. I asked him which town had the best shelter. To which he replied, "Jena." I asked him to accompany me there in my American car.

In Jena, we went to the police. When I asked whether the remains of Goethe and Schiller were in the town, they considered me crazy. So I asked where the aircraft shelters were. They gave me six addresses.

We found the first and second shelters closed, but the third shelter, annexed to a hospital, was open. I asked for the guard. Instead, a young man named Dr. Bach came down from the upper floor. In the semi-darkness of the shelter, he told us the following story.

On a night toward the end of the war, the Nazi police brought two big trucks to the shelter and placed them in the back-ground. Another doctor attached to the hospital, a Dr. Knie, was apprehensive about this. One night he opened the tent-like covering around the trucks and discovered the well-known castles. From Weimar with the golden inscription "Goethe and Schiller" he told only his friend Dr. Bach of his discovery.

B.C. Soldier Is Convicted Girl's Murder

VANCOUVER, June 22.—(CP)—William J. Hainen, 30-year-old Vancouver soldier, was convicted by a British Columbia Assize court jury last night of murdering Olga Hawryluk, 23, city waitress, here last May 2 and sentenced to hang by Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane to be hanged Sept. 20.

The jury deliberated two hours and 31 minutes.

In returning the verdict the foreman said: "We found accused guilty of murder with a recommendation of mercy."

Hainen paid alimony, but otherwise was unemployed. When asked if he wished to speak, he said: "I have nothing to say."

THREE-DAY TRIAL

The verdict brought to a close the three-day trial climaxed Wednesday by Hainen's own testimony that he had only a "hazy" recollection of events preceding the crime.

He told court that he had a fight with a mysterious figure on a grassy boulevard the night of the murder, after which he remembered nothing until arrested by police. Evidence by other witnesses disclosed that he had been drinking almost continuously for two days before the murder and had visited several beer parlors and had drinks of liquor in cafes the night preceding the finding of Miss Hawryluk's body in the surf at a Vancouver beach.

Miss Hawryluk's body was found by Mrs. Sam Robinson and her daughter, Hazel, of Calgary, who told police they were awakened by a woman's screams.

The dead woman's face and body were badly battered.

Suggest Hitler May Yet Be Alive

HAMBURG, June 22.—(AP)—Bumers that Hitler is in the Hamburg area and talk of his possible capture within the city itself are increasing among German civilians since Joachim von Ribbentrop was picked up here.

Residents to whom one correspondent talked in Germany's second largest city, where many other Nazi bigwigs have been arrested, do not believe the story of Hitler's death in Berlin.

British security officers still are investigating the Ribbentrop case. He may have had many interesting visitors during his seven-week stay in an apartment room which he presumably rented from an attractive 25-year-old blond divorcee.

The divorcee insists the only caller on Ribbentrop's that she saw was a tall, slender man with black hair.

However, she admits her roomers may have had many visitors when she was absent.

"He always asked me the exact time I would return when I left," she said.

Stricken Tanker Towed Into Port Near Vancouver

VANCOUVER, June 22.—(CP)—A battle to save a sinking ship and eight men in heavy seas off Point Grey ended late yesterday when the Vancouver tanker Shellco was towed six miles into Bough Cove on Bowen Island.

The 75-ton tanker, owned by Shell Oil Company of B.R., had sailed from its oil cargo in a desperate attempt to stay on the surface and sink with full of water to escape for cargo tanks.

The tanker now definitely out of danger, although it is reported that it would be brought into Vancouver after the water that flooded the vessel had been pumped out.

Security Meet Studies Whole World Charter

By C. R. BLACKBURN
SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—(CP)—A consorted world charter, designed to bring permanent peace and security, was submitted early yesterday to the United Nations security conference. The signing ceremony will be concluded Tuesday afternoon when President Truman delivers the closing address in the opera house.

Delegates from 50 countries labored more than eight days, in phrase the sections which were put together at an all-night session of the drafting and co-ordinating committee. Yesterday the draft was being transmitted to Moscow for examination by Premier Stalin and advisers.

The charter invites peace-loving nations to sign up in a new world league in which all are pledged to keep peace and outlaw war.

MUST BE RATIFIED

When the five major powers and half the remaining countries represented here have ratified the charter in their respective national legislatures, the new organization will come into operation.

It will be composed of a general assembly of representatives of all signatory states with an executive council with overriding authority.

The general assembly will have power to study disputes and make recommendations concerning international situations, but will have no power to order enforcement measures against an aggressor.

The security council will be the all-powerful instrument of the organization, with armed forces pledged to it for the purpose of policing the world if efforts at peaceful settlement of international disputes fail.

The United Kingdom, the United States, France, the Soviet Union and China will be permanent members of the security council and all major decisions must have the consent of each. One power alone can veto any proposal, except in matters of peace procedure. The other six members of the council will be elected by the assembly for two-year terms.

ECONOMIC COUNCIL

Second in importance only to the security council will be an 18-state social and economic council with power to make recommendations for the removal of social and economic conditions which may lead to war and to work actively for material improvement.

An international court will be restored at the Hague. The premises of the old world court. The new court will have a permanent base based largely on old. International disputes may be submitted to it for settlement and signatory countries are invited to judge themselves to accept its jurisdiction.

A trusteeship council may be set up to guard the interests of dependent areas left in the wake of the war and those planned to be freed since the First Great War. The council will be authorized by determination to work for the ultimate self-determination and political independence of all peoples, weak or strong.

SECRETARY-GENERAL

A secretary-general will take up permanent headquarters at a site yet to be selected, operating along lines similar to the old League of Nations. At this headquarters the Security Council will sit continuously.

2 Planes Missing On Britain Flight

LONDON, Ont., June 22.—(CP)—The RAF Transport Command at nearby Crampton yesterday reported the loss of two Mosquito bombers which took off last week-end from Crampton on a transport flight to Scotland. Two airmen are missing and two killed.

A plane commanded by Capt. E. Dugan of the RAF crashed Sunday at St. Irene, Malaga, Spain, Que. the report said.

The report further said that Dugan and an understudy navigator were missing, but a Canadian Press report from Aqueduct, Tuesday, said both occupants of the plane were killed in the crash and identified as those as James S. T. Stuart of Port Stanley, Ont. It did not identify the other occupant except as a New Zealander.

The other plane carrying Capt. Howard Wright of London, and W. Woodward, RAF navigating officer, "into difficulties off Greenland" and has been missing since Saturday.

A search being carried out in the Greenland area so far has found no trace of the missing plane.

Churchill Declares Britain Will Stand With United States

LONDON, June 22.—(Reuters)—Prime Minister Churchill said in a broadcast last night that as the United States had stood by Britain, so Britain must stand by the United States in the struggle against Japan "which must be wound up and finished off before peace returns to this tortured world."

In his third broadcast of the general election campaign, Churchill said: "I, Conservative party leader, said in addition 'we have our own passions, concerned and enraged by the Japanese, from which there comes additional call of duty for their clearance and redemption.'"

Survey Parties Undertake Work Over Northwest

OTTAWA, June 22.—(CP)—A widespread program of field work for 1935, designed to provide prospectors and exploration companies with information for the development of Canada's great wealth of minerals and oil deposits, was announced last night by the mines and geology branch of the resources department.

Announcing that all field and topographical survey parties now are in the field, the department said in a statement that the program includes reconnaissance surveys of largely unknown sections of northwestern Canada, and the examination of certain areas where rare element minerals occur or possibly occur.

ALBERTA OIL AREAS

Considerable attention is to be given to mapping of areas in Alberta where there are oil possibilities. Five geological parties will be engaged there, mapping possible oil structures in the foothills country, and four topographical parties will continue work in a section of the foothills north of Edmonton.

The statement said the department has assigned 37 parties to the field for geological survey work and 15 for topographical surveys.

Five of the geological parties will operate in the Northwest Territories: one in the Yukon and Northwest Territories; one in the Yukon; seven in British Columbia; five in Alberta; one in Alberta and Saskatchewan; two in Saskatchewan; three in Manitoba; two in Ontario; one in Quebec; one in New Brunswick; and two in Nova Scotia. In addition, one geologist will be engaged in collecting mineral specimens.

The topographical survey, which will provide base maps for the development of Canada's natural resources, will have one party in the Northwest Territories; one in the Yukon and Northwest Territories; one in the Yukon; four in British Columbia; four in Alberta; one in Manitoba; one in New Brunswick; and two in Nova Scotia.

Information Sought On Two Persons

City police are seeking information on two persons for whom inquiries have been received.

A family in Northampton, England, has asked Chief Const. Reg. Jennings to ascertain if Gen. Peter Vincent Eastwood of the Royal Canadian Artillery has yet returned to his home in Edmonton. According to the letter, the soldier stayed with the family while overseas, and the writer is interested in learning of his safe return home. Police have asked for any information as soon as possible.

Another query came from a soldier serving in the Polish forces overseas. Information is sought on the soldier's brother, Basil Horrold, 42, who came to Canada in 1927 and is said to have resided in Edmonton at one time.

Industry Parley Planned For Fall

LONDON, June 22.—(Reuters)—A conference of vital importance to the industries of Canada, the United States and Britain will be held in Canada this autumn, the head of production and resources board announced last night. The conference will bring together representatives of Anglo-American engineering practice and standards will be discussed.

Spanish Exclusion To Have No Effect

MADRID, June 22.—(AP)—The foreign ministry of Spain asserted yesterday that the action taken at the San Francisco United Nations conference excluding from any world security organization governments created with Axis aid, "does not affect our country in any way."

The ministry declared that the present Spanish government was proclaimed Oct. 1, 1936, when no foreigner fought for Spain. Foreign combatants, who the foreign ministry said came after the government was formed, were withdrawn before the Spanish civil war ended, a statement said.

The statement described as "vicious and slanderous" remarks made by a delegate of the Mexican government at the conference in regard to Spain's position and said his remarks constitute a "falsification of reality."

The foreign ministry's statement apparently referred to remarks made at the San Francisco conference by Louis Quintanilla, former Mexican ambassador in Russia, who led a list of several speakers in declaring the Franco government had no right in United Nations membership because of the help it got from Hitler and Mussolini in coming to power.

Hero of Dieppe Is Finding Trouble Obtaining House

OTTAWA, June 22.—(CP)—Lieut. Col. C. Merritt, who won the V.C. at Dieppe, spent three years in German prison camps and now is Progressive Conservative member of parliament for Vancouver-Burrard, is running into difficulties with Ottawa's tight housing situation.

Col. Merritt, who came to Ottawa with Mrs. Merritt to seek a house or an apartment for the forthcoming parliamentary session, said jokingly in an interview that "I'll have to leave my family in Vancouver and come down alone for the session I might, as well have stayed in Germany."

He visited Bracken House, headquarters of the Progressive Conservative party, and also saw Dr. Arthur Beauchamp, clerk of the House of Commons.

Official Outlines Work of Board

Inflation means the continuous and rapid rise in price of everything bought, food, clothing, the rent of a house, even a coke, a movie or a ball game, Walter F. Manly, Toronto, field officer with the Wartime Prices and Trade board, said in addressing the Lions Club at luncheon Wednesday.

Mr. Manly cited prices of sugar, $20 a pound, and butter $450 a pound as inflation at its worst in Germany after the last war. He illustrated the process of depreciated currency set against diminishing goods, covering household purchases from alarm clocks to coal, and said "In the final state of inflation not even meat decays as fast as money."

Canada learned its lesson in inflation following the last war, Mr. Manly said. The price board was established to combat forces and pressures generated in the course of converting peace-time economy to war. He reviewed the organization work of the board through its many branches, supply and price, rationing, standards—where safe-guarding of goods—rentals, services, enforcement.

R. T. Williams introduced Mr. Manly and Dr. Herman Wood expressed the thanks of the club to the speaker. Chairman Graham Kimble and Arthur Young presented a report of the district convention of Lions Clubs held last week in Banff.

Nimitz Message To Okinawa Men

60,000 Workers Out on Strikes In U.S. Plants

CHICAGO, June 22.—(AP)—A total of workers late in strikes in the United States went above the 60,000 mark yesterday as the men of the Packard Motor Car Company in Detroit joined.

A further increase in the number away from work was expected to result from a three-week extension of a glass industry strike in which 4,000 Pennsylvania workers have been involved for days.

The war labor board chairman, George W. Taylor, called upon strikers at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, Akron, O., where 14,700 were out, to resume their production of vital war goods immediately.

Before the Magistrate

A charge by Ignacy Gienkowski, proprietor of a rooming house, that he had been assaulted by Wilfred E. Linder, was dismissed by City police court Friday. Linder was accused of damaging furniture in the rooming house. Linder was made on the ground that there was insufficient evidence for prosecution. Roy Willis, also charged with assault, was fined $20 and costs.

To Plan Trial War Criminals At Conference

for the trial of war criminals given to newspapers here, the supreme court justice said that the trials would start "at the earliest possible moment—just as soon as we have a reasonably complete case."

He said speed was important lest witnesses disappear and important records be lost. Of the trial he said, "It is important that the trials would start 'at the earliest possible moment—just as soon as we have a reasonably complete case.'"

He said the military tribunal must decide the punishments. Asked if there was "any danger of delays resulting from appeals," Jackson replied: "The only appeals they will have to be history."

SETTLE PROCEDURE

The foreign office commentator said the purpose of the four-power discussion would be that of drafting a list of the major war criminals, and settling questions involving the procedure of the court which is to try them.

The American source reported U.S. authorities were ready, if necessary, to go ahead alone with the prosecution unless an agreement is reached soon among the big powers on the method to be adopted.

But the United States possesses a potent argument for obtaining a quick agreement—it has the custody of a great majority of the arch-criminals.

BLANKET CHARGE The American plan for a mass trial unprecedented in history would bring together as defendants under a blanket conspiracy charge those accused of being responsible for starting the Second Great War, including Nazi government leaders, top Nazi military chiefs, German industrialists and diplomats, SS and Gestapo leaders.

No place has been designated yet for the trial.

"Anywhere from 38 to 200 defendants might be tried at once," this source said. But regardless of what number is decided upon, the major trial itself will bring in scores of less important Nazis as well witnesses.

This will mean that to support its case, the informant said, adding that some plan probably would be devised to bring about participation in the trial by smaller European countries.

25 Permits For Home Building In Three Days

Building permits totaling $90,443 for the erection of 28 homes here were issued during the past three days by the city architect's office. A permit was issued also to M. J. Woodland, 1184 Jasper avenue, for a frame and stucco drug store to cost $7,000.

Alaska Highway Link Plan Hailed

SEATTLE, June 22.—(AP)—President Truman's statement at a press conference yesterday that he favored early completion of the Alaska Highway through central British Columbia met with high favor in interested circles.

In each case, the news were received a short time after their disappearance and had apparently been used for japing.

Detectives Murdo Munro and James Peterson apprehended Harold Matien, a transient, on Friday in a downtown rooming house on four charges of theft. He is alleged to have stolen a quantity of high-tens, clothing and tools from parked automobiles and trucks in the last few weeks.

Princess Alice Will Open Fund

OTTAWA, June 22.—(CP)—Plans are under way here for the subscription of $50,000 for burials and grants-in-aid for training in youth leadership. It was learned yesterday, that the fund, to be known as the Princess Alice Foundation Fund will be a farewell presentation to the late Princess Alice, daughter of King George V and Queen Mary.

His sentiments were echoed by Kemper Freeman, chairman of the Alaska Highway sub-committee of the Pacific Northwest Trade Association. T. A. Starnes, of the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce declared "that's awfully good news—we are now out of the realm of ballyhoo."

Half-Read Note Led to Break In West Allies

By RYAN MORIN

PARIS, June 22 (AP)—A preliminary deposition received yesterday in the defense of Major Henri Petain ascribed the wartime "misunderstanding" between Britain and the Vichy government to former Premier Paul Reynaud's failure to read all of a letter sent him by Prime Minister Churchill on the eve of the French-German armistice in 1940.

A supreme court official said the deposition was given to the French court in Washington by Prof. Louis Rouquier, who said he was Petain's representative in London during the critical days when the French army was collapsing.

HINT AT AGREEMENT

The official said M. Rouquier's deposition stated that a "gentleman's agreement" existed between M. Churchill and M. Reynaud on the question of permitting France to sign a separate armistice.

M. Rouquier appended a letter from Camille Chautemps—a former French premier who had served in the Reynaud government and briefly in Petain's first government—which gave this explanation:

When Mr. Churchill was informed that France intended to conclude an armistice, he sent a note to M. Reynaud in two parts. The first part rejected the French armistice plan on legal grounds. But the second part said Mr. Churchill would not oppose the signing of an armistice if he were assured that the French fleet would not be handed over to the Germans. M. Reynaud never read this half, the letter in the deposition said.

Thus, when M. Reynaud realized, Mr. Churchill interpreted this to mean that his successors had consented to turn the French fleet over to Hitler, the letter said. The "misunderstanding" subsequently brought about clashes between the British and French navies and embittered London-Vichy relations, the letter added.

A pilot flying at an altitude of 25,000 feet can see and estimate 200 miles in every direction.

PAY TRIBUTE TO FALLEN CANADIANS—Marking the first anniversary of D-Day, Canadian soldiers and French civilians gather on the beach near Bernieres-sur-Mer, France, to pay homage to the men of the Third Canadian Infantry Division who died there in the great assault of a year ago. Top photo shows actual beaches where landing took place, with Honorary Major P. O. Guy, Chaplain, conducting the service. Lower photo shows the Canadian Military cemetery near the beaches, with the names of Canadian soldiers plainly visible on the plain white crosses.

"Private X" Asks General To Forget About Warfare

PARIS, June 22 (AP)—This imaginary letter to Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., U.S. 3rd Army commander, written by a captain who signed only the initials J. C. B., appeared today in Stars and Stripes, U.S. army newspaper.

"Dear Gen. Patton: I am one of 30,000 men who died under your command on our march across Europe. Last week you told a Sunday school class: 'You children are the soldiers and nurses of the next war.'"

"Another war—not a hundred years from now but right around the corner! I don't know what the other 29,999 boys did but I turned over in my grave, General, and the dirt above me moved because it isn't packed hard yet."

"Please don't tell us that, General—not just now. And don't say it to our families. It's too soon for them to understand. And don't let the world at a time when all the decent nations in it are working to build a peace of some kind."

"Yes, we did when you told us to do it. We tried to do everything you asked of us because we thought of you as a great soldier. We still do. But may we now with all due respect ask one little favor in return?"

"Just stay a soldier. Leave the peace up to those who are working their hearts out to make it. Leave them alone for a little while, anyway. And for God's sake stay out of my little brothers Sunday school class. He still thinks I died to make a better world for him."

"Signed, Private X"

Navy Sets Up Demobilization System for Discharge of Men

OTTAWA, June 22 (CP)—Following an announcement yesterday that the 32,000 men who had volunteered for Pacific service were 10,000 more than needed for actual combat duty and reinforcement, it was disclosed that the navy had established a demobilization system for surplus personnel.

A plan has been devised that puts men through an initial discharge routine in 48 hours and provides personal counselling on their civilian prospects.

Details of the discharge plans were announced following disclosure that a total of 22,000 will man and reinforce Canada's 60-ship fleet in the Pacific battle area.

A complement of 13,000 men will be necessary to fight the ships and another 8,000 will be held in reserve. The total requirement for the war against Japan is 17,000 men, which indicates that 13,000 will be used in Canada in administrative and logistical capacities.

The surplus volunteers for combat duty will be posted to home establishments. These establishments will be brought up to strength by drawing on the pool of non-volunteers. All returns from a canvas of RCN personnel are not yet compiled and it is assumed that the volunteer total may have exceeded the 31,000 total requirement.

Volunteering is 35 per cent of the navy's total strength.

Like the other services, the navy repatriates and demobilizes its men on a "first-in, first-out" basis. It is possible that some men will be needed in European waters for several months clearing up mine fields and transporting shore establishments from foreign stations. These, similar to many of the men attached to home establishments, will be composed of short service non-volunteers. Thus, it is not possible to estimate accurately the surplus of naval manpower which will be demobilized during the next few months.

For several months, rehabilitation officers in ships and shore bases have utilized lectures, discussions and distribution of literature to acquaint ratings with the steps taken for their return to civilian life.

All general relations with the service and government along these lines, grants, gratuities, credits, benefits and training in which they are entitled have been practically outlined.

FINAL INTERVIEW

Most important part at which the sailor calls in his journey back to civilian life is the final discharge establishment. There he is interviewed by a navy councillor and a mustered sea band leader and other popular songs, but has been induced as a drill instructor by a New York federal grand jury. FBI charges that he bribed John F. Wilson, New York state district judge, to commit suicide last year after being indicted for bribery in connection with another federal election case.

But the navy's interest in him

PORTRAIT OF A LONG-SERVICE SOLDIER

June, 1945: Back home to the happiness of reunion come several thousand of our long-service troops.

Over three hundred thousand more men and women of the overseas army will come after them between now and Christmas.

After the flag-waving and the formal welcomes, the parades and the cheers... what then?

Let us be sure that they find this Canada a better place to live in than it was before they went away... a nation worthy of the sacrifice made by the thirty-seven thousand who will never come home.

WE'RE IN IT TO THE FINISH!

Canada's part in the Pacific War will add to the laurels this nation has already won in Europe. With war production geared to the new needs—a thirty-five million dollar increase in the 10th Victory Loan over the 7th, no one need ever shy slackening in our will to see the war through. The production of high-test alcohol at the C.I.P. plants will continue to serve our needs until every requirement is fully met.
